

LAUNDRY LIQUID

Non Biological Laundry Liquid

This quality, fully built non-biological laundry liquid is suitable for use in all types of machines and ideal for professional use. Our specially formulated laundry liquid contains no enzymes and so no pre wash is necessary.

Laundry Liquid is suitable for automatic dosing into commercial machines operating at a lower temperature.

- Stunning results with just one wash
- Technology that cleans quickly and effectively
- Can be used both in a washing machine and by hand washing
- No pre wash necessary
- Contains no enzymes

DIRECTIONS

Measure out the required amount of liquid into the main wash dispenser of the machine.

Alternatively, use a detergent ball. Always follow the garment manufacturers instructions.

For stubborn stains, check for colour fastness first, the pour directly onto stains. Can be used for handwashing. Use one measure per 10 litres of water. Rinse clothes thoroughly in clean water after washing.
